

Media Marketers launches CreativeImageTech.com

Creative Image Technologies has just rolled out its new website design. The new site, which gives visitors the ability to search Creative Image's wide selection of SMART boards, projectors, interactive whiteboards, high-definition conferencing tools and to schedule training online, was developed through a partnership with MediaMarketers.com. Working together, Creative Image and Media Marketers have incorporated interactive solutions geared to engage the consumer. To experience the new Creative Image website, visit www.creativeimagetech.com.
